

CHOOSING A COURSE

Students and future students, the City of Le Havre has developed several services and infrastructures to help you through the administrative procedures and guide you through your educational orientation choices.

Counselling services to help you with your career choices

The Youth Information Office (BIJ) supports and informs you.

The BIJ provides documentary resources on higher education, professions and training courses, in-house training, society and everyday life, leisure, sports, holidays, and foreign opportunities.

It also organises numerous events throughout the year, such as the Seasonal Jobs Forum, and the Time To Move Festival, and supports several initiatives, such as the International Civic Service (SCI) and the European Solidarity Corps (CES).

Main events

To help you choose which course to take, Le Havre Seine Métropole invites you to discover all the higher education training programmes available in the area by organising two main events.

The Student Fair

Held each November at Campus Le Havre Normandie, the Student Fair is designed to guide you with your career choices and help you find the course you are looking for. It brings together higher education establishments, training agencies, specialised schools, as well as professionals from the Le Havre region. Conferences with teachers, directors, and higher education experts are also scheduled.
