

DON'T MISS: SUMMER JOBS FORUM 2024!

March 14, 2024 from 12:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. – Le Havre City Hall

Published on 11 March 2024

Are you looking for a summer job?

The youth and community life service of the city of Le Havre is organizing the “Summer Jobs Forum” on Thursday March 14, 2024 from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m., at the Le Havre City Hall forum.

This job dating will offer you the opportunity to find a job for this summer thanks to the provision of numerous tools:

- Recruiter center: Professionals from the Le Havre area will be available to meet candidates looking for seasonal employment,
- Image advice center: Students from the Jeanne d'Arc high school as well as human resources employees will be present to advise you on your professional posture and your image,
- Digital Center: Methodological support for writing your CVs and cover letters will be made available, with laptops and printers,
- Youth Info Center: This center will inform you about your rights and all the possibilities available to you as part of your research: minor labor legislation, civic service, BAFA training, financial aid, volunteering, etc.

- > Europe and international department: the representative present will be able to inform you about international mobility and the assistance available to find a job or a volunteering opportunity abroad,
- > Local and national offers center: A complete list of job offers for the summer season will be made available to you.

For more information, do not hesitate to contact the Youth Information Office (BIJ) at 02.35.22.27.27.

Don't miss this unique event!
