One of the city's main advantages : organising evenings on the beach

Published on 21 June 2023

Being from the Lower Normandy region, I had quite a few preconceptions about Le Havre, but during my 2 years of study I was able to discover a welcoming, pleasant city to live in. What's more, the Perret architecture gives the city centre a real sense of harmony.

One of the main advantages of Le Havre is its beach, which is great for getting away from it all, but alson for organising beach parties when the warm weather arrives. As a photographer, I really enjoyed photographing it.
