ISTELI is the higher education school for training in Transport and Logistics from BAC+2 to BAC+6. A professional school of the AFTRAL group, ISTELI was created more than 40 years ago to respond to the desire of professionals to have a school that could act as a nursery and meet their recruitment needs. Students are trained to become future professionals in the Transport and Logistics sector with the educational support of professionals, but also a long-standing partnership with companies in the sector.

Training

They are open to all audiences and result in titles certified by the State.
