STEVEN PÉRIOT

International Student Network - Le Havre

A student association to help you settle !

Published on 5 March 2021

Steven Périot is from Le Havre. He is a student in management and international business. Last September, he created the International Student Network Le Havre association, which already occupies a large part of his time as well as the small team he has gathered around his project.

“Before resuming my studies, I spent three years in Mexico. When I came back, I spontaneously approached foreign students, before realizing that there were many community associations, but none open to all nationalities. ”Thus its objective is twofold :“ We are looking on the one hand to improve the reception of foreign students to allow them to better acclimatize and integrate. And on the other hand, we want to make Le Havre students aware of international exchanges "So Steven and his association organized site visits, an escape game dating, a trip to Mont Saint-Michel, outings to matches ...
