CAMPUS
LE HAVRE-NORMANDIE

THE TOURISM OFFER

Whether you are already studying in Le Havre or whether you have just arrived from another region and would like to find out more about your new surroundings, let us guide you !

History and heritage

The Land of Art & History staff is there to guide you through your new surroundings and help you unearth hidden heritage treasures.

Enjoy a new, rich, and diverse programme each term !

Various events are organised to help you find out more about the history and heritage your everyday life is influenced by. Discovery walks, coach tours, conferences, hikes, dramatised visits, workshops, exhibitions... Each term, a different aspect of the local heritage is thoroughly explored by professional guides and/or lecturers.

Together with a guide, an actor, or a specialist, you will be able to :

- Enjoy the breathtaking view on the reconstructed city centre – classified on the World Heritage List – from the 17th floor of the City Hall
- Travel back in time to the 1950s by visiting the Perret Model Apartment and discover Auguste Perret's remarkable housing reconstruction project designed after World War II

- Uncover the secrets of the picturesque stairways spread over the slopes of the Costière
- Admire the military and reconstruction heritage throughout the city
- Go hiking on the majestic cliffs of Étretat
- ...

Over 200 events are organised by the Land of Art & History staff each year to help you find out more about Le Havre and the surrounding area !

Feel free to subscribe to the newsletter to be advised of future events :Email
